

Entitlement

French Language and Culture

Prerequisites

Not required

Main aim

To form abilities and skills appropriate to individual needs and to develop communicative skills of French Language.

Summary

After completing the French Language and Culture module, students will gain knowledge of language and culture. Learning begins with the alphabet, polite phrases in language situations, then students will learn to write and tell about himself/herself and represent his/her place of work, leisure. Students will develop their spoken language and perform in pairs situations in their work and daily activities, watch, listen and analyze video and audio material. In practical sessions and individual studies students will use effective teaching / learning tools: multimedia, virtual learning environment, smart programs. Level A1/1 of General French is being achieved by the end of the module.

Learning Outcomes

1. Know, understand and apply polite phrases in linguistic situations
2. Write about oneself and introduce oneself
3. Write and tell about one's family, friends and present one's living and work place
4. Prepare and present one's workdays and free time activities
5. Act out situations associated with organisation of business trip
6. Act out situations in a shop, cafe
7. Prepare an invitation, request, suggestion, and order using a dictionary
8. Role-play the situations related to manager's activities in in the work environment
9. Self-assess and present portfolio of foreign language learning achievements
10. Acquire necessary basics of second foreign language and apply practical and professional language communication skills

Syllabus

1. Me and my environment. Introduction
2. Manager's working day and free time

3. Everyday situations

4. Trip planning and organization

5. Studies. Future plans

6. Self-assessment of foreign language learning achievements
--

Evaluation procedure of knowledge and abilities

Ten grade and gathered evaluation system is applied. The semester's individual work tasks are evaluated by grades; the final grade is given during the examination session while multiplying particular grades by the lever coefficient and summing the products.
