

VILNIAUS
KOLEGIJA

VILNIAUS KOLEGIJA/UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

STUDY SUBJECT/MODULE PROGRAMME (SSMP)

VETERINARY

Entitlement Health of farm animals, 4 cr.

Prerequisites

B1 level of English language

Main aim

To provide students with knowledge and skills about the basic factors influencing animal health, to explain the influence of good zoohygienic conditions, vaccination, nutrition on health, to understand the basic principles of health and to be able to apply them. To acquaint students with the animals used for various works and the legislation regulating their welfare.

Summary

The main factors influencing the health of farm animals, zoohygienic conditions, principles of nutrition and prevention are reviewed, and the possibilities of their application are analyzed.

Learning Outcomes

1. Will be able to identify and evaluate environmental factors that affect the health of the animal.
2. Will be able to apply preventive measures to farm animals.
3. Will be able to fill in logs and other accounting documents related to the keeping of farm animals.

Syllabus

1. The concept of farm animal health.
2. Ensuring therapy and health of farm animals.
3. Health of farm animals kept in zoos and zoos.
4. Principles of nutrition of farm animals.
5. Livestock housing conditions.
6. Labeling, vaccination and preventive measures for farm animals.

Evaluation procedure of knowledge and abilities

Cumulative assessment (intermediate settlements, laboratory work, self-study, examination)