

Entitlement Landscape architecture 3, 8 cr.

Prerequisites

Applied dendrology, Herbaceous plants, History of landscape architecture. B2 level of English language.

Main aim

By providing knowledge and practical experience to develop the ability to create private garden in residential area project.

Summary

Students should be aware of garden design principles. During the course they will analyse situation of site and will prepare the private garden in residential area project.

Learning Outcomes

Will be able to prepare the private garden project.

Syllabus

1. Landscape design styles of private gardens
2. Analysis of the current situation
3. Plot design formation
4. Preparation of the private garden project.

Evaluation procedure of knowledge and abilities

The study results of the subject are evaluated by applying criterion and cumulative assessment. Applying cumulative assessment, study results are assessed by interim assessments. The study of the subject ends with an exam or the defense / assessment of a project (individual work) completed by a student. The components of the cumulative assessment are used to assess certain study results provided in the subject description.